ALL GRAIN DEALERS GO TO LAGOON TODAY

Wheat Reduced 10 Cents Per Cwt.-Raspberries Become Cheaper-Strawberries Go Up.

NOTHER 16-cent on the hundred re duction in wheat was announce yesterday after the meeting of th Grain Dealers' association. Thi was the only change made; most of the roccodings were taken up with completessociation, which takes place at Lagoon oday. The committee has certainly outone itself in preparing a fine spread and naking the best possible provisions for he amusement of everyone who goes out to the resort, and that there will be a goodly number of these is shown by the number of tickets sold. The grain dealrs and the flour dealers, who are going to nix things on the baseball diamond are inticipating a lively contest.

Some small reductions have taken place n the prices of fruit and vegetables. Raspberries have gone down, and can be bought wholesale for $1 a cage and retail at 10 cents a cup. Blackberries are also getting cheaper as the commission-houses are making a price from $1 to $1.50, and the consumer can buy them for 10 cents a up. Strawberries have at last started on the up-grade. This has as yet no effect on the vetail market, but the greengrocers are obliged to pay a little more for them, the price ranging from 75 cents to $1.

Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, June 20—Dispelling weakness due to general liquidation in July wheat, cool weather in the Northwest and rains in the Southwest caused a firm tone in wheat today at the close. Final quotations on September were up a shade. Corn is down halface. Oats show a shade decline. Provisions advanced 7½ to 20c.

More favorable harvesting weather in the Southwest took the edge off the wheat market at the start. Notwithstanding an improved tone in foreign grain markets, sentiment in the pit here was quite bearish. The opening on September was a shade lower to he higher at $1\frac{1}{2}\text{fill} \text{fill} to 10\text{literest local traders sold freely and at one time it looked as if a bad break would follow. The principal feature of trading was the liquidation of July holdings and the changing from July to distant deliveries. There was also considerable selling of September on the improved weather conditions in the Southwest. Before the decline was checked September went off to $2\text{c}$. During the latter part of the session a decided reaction developed. Bullish advices regarding the spring wheat crop were received from the Northwest, the reports stating that abnormally cool weather was greatly retarding the growth of the plant. These rumors were accompanied by enough buying orders to occasion a good railly, especially in the more distant deliveries. The market was further strengthened within the last few noinutes of trading by reports of rain in Kansas. September closed at $1\frac{1}{4}\text{s}\text{light}_2 conditions for trading by reports of rain in Kansas. September closed at $1\frac{1}{4}\text{s}\text{light}_2 conditions of July holdings was the feature of trading in the corn pit. September opened a shade higher at $2\text{light}_2 cond the series of corn, prices of all deliveries showing slight losses. September opened a shade higher at $2\text{light}_2 cond the tween $1\text{light}_2 cand $2\text{light}_2 cand closed at $2\text{light}_2 cand closed at $2\text{light}_2 cand closed
